Hullo Scottish Club Member,

It is quite a while since we have had a newsletter as our Editor Gary Gray has been working way up north near Cairns. Unfortunately for the Club he has decided to move up there with his family and leaves next Wednesday.

Gary always wrote a most interesting newsletter with reports on past events, advertisements for coming activities, and articles on Scottish culture and history. He will really be missed not only for his newsletters but for the enjoyable entertainment he provided at many of the Hunter Valley Scots Club activities.

I am sure we all wish Gary, Lee-Anne and Cara all the best for their future. Maybe Gary will start a group based on Scottish culture in the Cairns district.

NOTE: We now need another newsletter Editor—don't be shy to put your hand up if you would like to take on this role. Newsletters go out approximately monthly to keep members up to date on coming events.

SOCIAL NIGHTS

Social nights have become a special part of the activities of the Scots Club. They occur on the second Wednesday of each second month. Any person may attend— not just HVSC members. In general the nights are free.

February 2018

Bill's Ballroom entertained HVSC members with some highly skilled ballroom dancers. The members of this group, who are quite varied in ages, are renowned dancers winning many awards at competitions away from the area. Teralba Hall is the venue for their classes 5 or 6 days per week. They do rest on Sundays unless there is competition to attend.

At the Social Night Bill was even brave enough to encourage us to get up and have a go at a dance or two. Amazing how it helps to have a skilled partner!

SOCIAL NIGHTS

April 2018

Newcastle and Hunter Folk Club meet on 4th Sunday of the month at Teralba hall. Visitors are always welcome
They came and entertained us at our April Social Night.

The items included:

- Scottish melodies by Jim on the accordion
- Vince on the saxophone
- Alan with a Jim Haynes poem, Dipso Dan
- Paul on the bazooka
- More poetry by Chris L
- Hawaiian singing and blues on a Hungarian slide guitar
- Lorraine and Chris on the ukulele and recorder

And the most enjoyable evening finished with some community singing by the audience.

Soup and Damper May 27th—Andrew MacPherson & pipe band

June Social Night—McEwan's Pipe Band

Flora Carter's Dancers entertained us at both of these evenings.
