Displays, Strong Men, and various activities for children of all ages

Annual fees for Hunter Valley Scots Club are now due.

Form attached to this newsletter.

Membership keeps you up to date with activities via the newsletter, and gives reductions on fees for functions.

We were sorry to hear of the passing of Nance Adam's brother, William Reedman recently. He and his wife, Herma, were involved in the Club from 2000-2007 approx. RIP William

If you hear happy or sad news of any of our members, and it is appropriate to pass it on to other members, please let us know and we can share it in this newsletter. A great way of more involvement in the Hunter Valley Scots Club community.

A small number of people from the Hunter Valley Scots Club joined with the Central Coast Scots when they celebrated Scottish Week with an afternoon tea.

It was very pleasant on a gloomy, damp afternoon to enjoy a scrumptious afternoon tea and warm up with some Scottish dancing and other entertainment

Child's Sporran

The Club has received a donation of a child's sporran (thank you Chris Shand)

If you know someone probably late primary to early high school age who would appreciate a sporran to go with their Scottish outfit please let us know
